Re: *Emilio Collado v. Lockheed Martin Corporation, Case No. C07 05190 JF –
Defendant's Motion to Strike/Dismiss Set For Hearing on November 30, 2007*

ILLINOIS

Dear Judge Fogel:

Defendant Lockheed Martin Corporation currently has its motion to dismiss and strike allegations from Plaintiff Emilio Collado's complaint set for hearing on November 30 at 10:30 a.m. Plaintiff has agreed to enter into a stipulation with Defendant which would allow Plaintiff to amend his complaint while removing the allegations and causes of action which Defendant moved to strike/dismiss in its motion. We expect to file the stipulation with the Court for its approval shortly.

MARYLAND

MINNESOTA

In the interim, Defendant respectfully requests that the hearing on its motion to dismiss and strike be taken off calendar so that the parties have an opportunity to draft the stipulation and the Court has an adequate opportunity to review the stipulation after it is filed. In the event that the parties cannot agree on the language for the stipulation, Defendant will so inform the Court and ask that its motion be placed back on the Court's law and motion calendar for hearing.

Yours very truly,
